DATA PROTECTION

All personal data that Silk Street Music Ltd may use will be collected, processed, and held in accordance with the provisions of EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") and your rights under the GDPR.

For complete details of Silk Street Music Ltd's collection, processing, storage, and retention of personal data including, but not limited to, the purpose(s) for which personal data is used, the legal basis or bases for using it, details of your rights and how to exercise them, and personal data sharing (where applicable), please refer to Silk Street Music Ltd's Privacy Notice available from www.silkstreet.co.uk/privacy-policy

DATA PROCESSING

In this Clause X and in the Booking Contract, "personal data", "data subject", "data controller", "data processor", and "personal data breach" shall have the meaning defined in Article 4, EU Regulation 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

All personal data to be processed by Silk Street Music Ltd on behalf of The Client and Act, subject to these Terms and Conditions and the Booking Contract, shall be processed in accordance with the terms of a Data Processing Agreement into which the Parties shall enter before any personal data is processed

For the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation and for this Clause X and the Booking Contract, The Client is the "Data Controller" and Silk Street Music Ltd is the "Data Processor".

The type(s) of personal data, the scope, nature and purpose of the processing, and the duration of the processing shall be set out in our Privacy Policy found at www.silkstreet.co.uk/privacy-policy.

The Data Controller shall ensure that it has in place all necessary consents and notices required to enable the lawful transfer of personal data to the Data Processor for the purposes described in these Terms and Conditions and Booking Contract and our Privacy Policy found at www.silkstreet.co.uk/privacy-policy.

The Data Processor shall, with respect to any personal data processed by it in relation to its performance of any of its obligations under these Terms and Conditions and Booking Contract process the personal data only on the written instructions of the Data Controller unless the Data Processor is otherwise required to process such personal data by law. The Data Processor shall promptly notify the Data Controller of such processing unless prohibited from doing so by law.

Ensure that it has in place suitable technical and organisational measures (as approved by the Data Controller) to protect the personal data from unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, damage or destruction. Such measures shall be proportionate to the potential harm resulting from such events, taking into account the current state of the art in technology and the cost of implementing those measures. Measures to be taken shall be agreed between the Data Controller and the Data Processor and set out in our Privacy Policy found at www.silkstreet.co.uk/privacy-policy.

- (a) Ensure that any and all staff with access to the personal data (whether for processing purposes or otherwise) are contractually obliged to keep that personal data confidential; and
- (b) Not transfer any personal data outside of the European Economic Area without the prior written consent of the Data Controller and only if the following conditions are satisfied:
- (c) The Data Controller and/or the Data Processor has/have provided suitable safeguards for the transfer of personal data;
- (d) Affected data subjects have enforceable rights and effective legal remedies;
- (e) The Data Processor complies with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation, providing an adequate level of protection to any and all personal data so transferred; and
- (f) The Data Processor complies with all reasonable instructions given in advance by the Data Controller with respect to the processing of the personal data.
- (g) Assist the Data Controller at the Data Controller's cost, in responding to any and all requests from data subjects in ensuring its compliance with the Data Protection Legislation with respect to security, breach notifications, impact assessments, and consultations with supervisory authorities or regulators (including, but not limited to, the Information Commissioner's Office);
- (h) Notify the Data Controller without undue delay of a personal data breach;
- (i) On the Data Controller's written instruction, delete (or otherwise dispose of) or return all personal data and any and all copies thereof to the Data Controller on termination of the Booking Contract unless it is required to retain any of the personal data by law; and
- (j) Maintain complete and accurate records of all processing activities and technical and organisational measures implemented necessary to demonstrate compliance with the Booking Contract and to allow for audits by the Data Controller and/or any party designated by the Data Controller.

The Data Processor shall not sub-contract any of its obligations with respect to the processing of personal data under the Booking Contract.

Either Party may, at any time, and on at least 1 calendar month's notice, alter the data protection provisions of the Booking Contract and Terms & Conditions, replacing them with any applicable data processing clauses or similar terms that form part of an applicable certification scheme. Such terms shall apply when replaced by attachment to the Booking Contract.

ACCURACY OF INFORMATION

It is agreed that all information submitted by the Client to Silk Street forms the basis of the agreement between the Client and Agency and both parties warrant that it is accurate.

The Laws of England shall be applied.

This Agreement may not be modified or cancelled except by mutual consent, in writing and signed by both parties. By returning the contract, the Act and Client agree to the Terms and Conditions of the booking.
